Introduction

Novihacks is one of the best-known providers of professional csgo cheats in the world. We focus on legit cheating and want to provide our customers with the best possible product in this segment. Founded in 2019, we have been offering our services for three years and are constantly developing. In our staff team we work together as a team to make customer experience as good as possible.

Requirements/Qualifications

- A running or a previous ownership of Novihacks subscription.
- A working microphone or headset with decent quality.
- No bans on our website as well as the Discord.
- Continuous participation on our Discord and the forums.
- At least 16 years old.
- Fluency in English (other languages are a plus) written and spoken.
- Good team player and problem-solving skills

What you will do

If your application is accepted by our recruiter, you will first go through a trial period as a trial staff member. After successful completion of the probationary period, you will receive full staff status. Throughout this period, you will work closely with our staff team and provide technical support and moderation to our customers. Your central task will be to answer support tickets in the help center. Furthermore, you will take care of the moderation of the customers on our discord and in the forum. You will post announcements to the community, delete spam content, ban users who violate the guidelines and moderate giveaways. Furthermore, you will represent Novihacks to the outside world as an official staff member of our provider.
